

PLANNING & ASSESSING THE OVERALL EFFECTIVENESS OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATIONS: MARK CABAJ

This workshop explores the key elements of successful community development organizations (CDO), the different priorities of CDOs at different stages of their development, and provides useful tools for rating and benchmarking a CDO's outcomes. The workshop uses a mix of videos, case studies, and group discussion to ensure participants leave with a practical framework to guide their efforts to grow a strong CDO.

This workshop is available in a three-hour, one or two-day format. It can be customized to emphasize partnerships with business, government, the voluntary sector or citizen engagement.

Workshop rate: Workshop costs are based on location, length of seminar and number of learners expected. Most workshops will be sponsored by the host organization. Tamarack may provide limited marketing assistance to promote seminars.
