

Vibrant Abbotsford's Framework of Change

Rapid population growth, lower than average high school graduation rates and more diversity are some of the strongest challenges to Abbotsford's social fabric. To address them while reducing poverty, Vibrant Abbotsford has adopted a framework of change that includes work on the assets of individual and households, on increasing community capacity and on changing policies and systems. Read more in this community story from the Caledon Institute.

 Click here to visit the Tamarack website for more engaging content!