

Bio for Jenny Kain

Jenny Kain works with the Research and Innovation section of Community Services with the City of Edmonton. She believes passionately in the power of communities to create positive change. For the past 8 years her work has focused on municipal involvement in social economy/CED initiatives and she has been an active contributor to a variety of initiatives aimed at reducing poverty. Her passion, commitment and leadership have resulted in the establishment of a number of organizations and municipal projects that have made a significant contribution to the lives of many Edmontonians. Among these are Women Building Futures, Families against Cutbacks Together, Women's Economic and Business Solutions Society and Dickinsfield Community Partners. Jenny has used her skills for initiating and building collaborative and innovative projects to assist communities in their efforts to support people in the pathway out of poverty.
