

Calgary Considers Secondary Suites

A debate is raging in Calgary over whether accessory apartments in residential neighbourhoods are a good thing. Thousands exist now, but illegally; many say that legalizing and regulating them is the way to create safe, affordable housing.

Mayor Naheed Nenshi favours them. Vibrant Communities Calgary is organizing support, providing summaries of the process and data as well as related resources and media coverage. City council votes in early March, 2011. Follow the twitter tag #suiteyc for the latest details.

Click here to visit the Tamarack website for more engaging content! www.tamarackcommunity.ca