

Unequal Canada

Vibrant Surrey was one of many British Columbia communities that took part in a province-wide video conference in December 2010 that featured Richard Wilkinson, author of The Spirit Level and other publications that show the link between income disparity and social ills including crime, infant mortality, life expectancy and mental illness. Vibrant Surrey made a short presentation about the work they are doing to reduce poverty at the community level.

For more, read Michael Shapcott writing for rabble.ca on Richard Wilkinson's tour of Canada and reaction to his work in the UK.

