

Winnipeg Poverty Reduction Council's Framework of Change

The Winnipeg Poverty Reduction Council's efforts to create A City Where Everyone Belongs include eight areas of activity: asset building, post-secondary education, early education, social infrastructure, early years initiatives, affordable housing, disability income and quality of life benefits, and public education and engagement. This Caledon Institute story provides more details.

 Click here to visit the Tamarack website for more engaging content!